

Seedlings Classroom October Newsletter 2025

September recap

September was a month full of discovery and creativity! Our young learners explored the alphabet, dove into the five senses, and had fun learning about opposites. As the season shifted, we welcomed fall with festive art activities during our "Hade Week," celebrating the beauty of autumn. We also began our journey around the world by learning about the continents through vibrant pictures and classroom discussions.

October news

October Adventures in the Classroom 🎃🕷️🍂

October is here, and we're ready for a month full of fun, learning, and seasonal excitement! This month, our little learners will explore the world of spiders—discovering different types and enjoying the classic rhyme "Itsy Bitsy Spider."

We'll dive into fall-themed art projects, including finger-painted pumpkins and sensory play with noodles. There will also be opportunities to create festive items and taste seasonal treats as we celebrate the beauty of autumn.

Our theme song for the month will be "The Five Little Pumpkins," which ties in perfectly with the Halloween spirit that October brings.

We're looking forward to a joyful and creative month ahead!

Dates to remember:
